

Join us in reading & celebrating poetry!
Bring a poem of your choice to share with us.

April 27 at 2:00 in the meeting room

Please register in advance.

Light refreshments will be provided.

“The only thing that can save the world is the reclaiming of the awareness of the world. That's what poetry does.”

-Allen Ginsberg

April is National Poetry month and one day is designated “Poem in Your Pocket Day.” People celebrate by selecting a poem, carrying it with them, and sharing it with others throughout the day at schools, bookstores, libraries, parks, workplaces, and on Twitter using the hashtag #pocketpoem.

