

OPERA

@ your library

2018 Dates and Presentations:

April 11 & 18: La Rondine (The Swallow) by Puccini. A tender story of love and loss and a gem in the opera repertory.

May 2 & 9: Nabucco by Verdi. A Verdi favorite about struggle and power in Babylon.

September 5 & 12: Romeo and Juliet by Gounod. The classic ill-fated love story of all time.

November 7 & 14: The Girl of the Golden West by Puccini. A love story of bandits, gamblers and romance in the early American West.

All shows begin promptly at 1:00 pm and run approximately two hours.

Each opera is presented in two parts. These presentations are auditory—the full sound recordings will be played for you. A copy of the libretto will be supplied so you can follow along. Facilitated by Mr. Joseph Erdeljac. Advanced registration is required. Light refreshments will be provided.
