

Marple Library Board Game Jam 2025

Marple Library is celebrating International Games Month with its first ever board game jam. Aspiring game makers of all ages are encouraged to submit their own original board game creations throughout the month of November. Submissions will be featured in our upcoming gaming lounge events, and a prize will go to the creator of our favorite game.

Rules:

1. Games can be submitted anytime between November 1st and the 21st.
2. Patrons can submit a physical version of their game to the reference desk with the slip attached. They can also send digital files of the gameboard, rules, and any other necessary materials to Kevin at maet@delcolibraries.org. Online submissions will be made available for download through our website.
3. Board games should be playable within 45 minutes or less.
4. Per our exhibition policy, all games should be appropriate for a library setting.
5. AI-generated elements are prohibited.
6. All submissions should come with the name and contact information of the designer.
7. The library does not assume responsibility, should the game become lost, stolen, or damaged.

Marple Library Board Game Jam 2025: Submission Form

Game Title:

Name of Creator:

Phone Number:

Email Address:

Return to Marple Library reference desk anytime between November 1st and 21st.
Submissions can also be sent online to Kevin at maet@delcolibraries.org.

User's Agreement: I confirm that the work I am submitting is of my own creation and in accordance with the rules outlined for the competition. I understand that Marple Library is not liable, should my board game become lost, stolen, or damaged.

Signature

Date